59. Manner of authorization of employer for representing in any proceeding under sub-section (2) of Section 94:-

Where the employer, is not a member of any association of employers, may authorize in Form-XII an officer of any association of employers connected with, or by any other employer engaged in, the industry in which the employer is engaged to represent him in any proceeding under the Code relating to a dispute in which the employer is a party.

60. Manner of holding an enquiry under sub-section (1) of section 85.-

(1) Complaint.- On receipt of a complaint of the offence committed under sub-sections (3), (5), (7), (8), (9), (10), (11) and (20) of section 86 and sub-section (7) of section 89, the same shall be enquired by an officer having rank equivalent to the level of Under-Secretary of Government of India or above as notified by the State Government under sub-section (1) of section 85 (hereinafter referred to as the enquiry officer).

(2) Issue of Notice.- If the complaint filed is admitted by the Enquiry officer, he shall call upon the person or persons through a notice to be sent electronically and a copy of the same to be posted on Online Portal to appear before him on a specified date together with all relevant documents and witnesses, if any, and shall inform the complainant of the date so specified.

(3) If the person or his representative fails to appear on the specified date, the Enquiry Officer may proceed to hear and determine the complaint ex-parte.

(4) If the complainant fails to appear on the specified date without any intimation to the Enquiry officer on two consecutive dates, the complaint may be dismissed. Provided that not more than three adjournments may be given on the joint application made by complainant and the opposite party.

Provided further that the enquiry officers shall at his discretion permit hearing the parties or any of the party, as the case may be, through video conferencing.

(5) Authorisation.- The authorisation to appear on behalf of any person, under section sub-section (2) of section 85 shall be given by a certificate or electronic certificate, as the case may be, which shall be presented to the Enquiry Officer during the hearing of the complaint and shall Form part of the record.

(6) Permission to appear.- Any person who intends to appear in the proceeding on behalf of complainant shall present before the Enquiry Officer and submit a brief written statement explaining the reason for his appearance. The Enquiry officer shall record an order on the statement and in the case of refusal shall include reasons for the same, and incorporate it in the record.

(7) Presentation of documents.- Complaint or other documents relevant to the complaint may be presented in person to the Enquiry Officer at any time during hours fixed by the Enquiry Officer, or may be sent to him electronically or by registered post or speed post.

(8) The Enquiry Officer shall endorse, or cause to be endorsed, on each document the date of the presentation or receipt, as the case may be. If the documents have been submitted electronically, no such endorsement shall be necessary.

(9) Refusal to entertain complaint.-

- (i) The Enquiry Officer may refuse to entertain a complaint presented under sub-section (1) of section 85 if after giving the complainant an opportunity of being heard, the Enquiry Officer is satisfied, for reasons to be recorded in writing that—
 - (a) The complainant is not entitled to present the complaint; or
 - (b) The complainant is barred by limitation under the provisions of this Code
 - (c) The complainant fails to comply the directions given by the Enquiry Officer under sub-section (2) of section 85.
 - (ii) The Enquiry Officer may refuse to entertain complaint which is otherwise incomplete. He may ask complainant to rectify the defects and if the Enquiry Officer thinks that the complaint cannot be rectified he may return the complaint indicating the defects and, if he, so refuses shall return it at once indicating the defects. If the complaint is presented again, after the defects have been rectified, the date of representation shall be deemed to be the date of presentation for the purpose of sub-section (1) of section 85.
- (10) Record of proceedings.- The Enquiry Officer shall in all cases mention the particulars at the time of passing of order containing the details, i.e., date of complaint, name and address of the complainant, name and address of the opposite party or parties, section-wise details of the offence committed, plea of the opposite party, findings and brief statement of the reason and penalty imposed with signature, date and place.
- (11) Exercise of powers.- In exercise of the powers of a Civil Court, conferred under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, the Enquiry Officer shall be guided in respect of procedure by relevant orders of the First Schedule of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, with such alterations as the Enquiry Officer may find necessary, not affecting their substance, for adapting them to the matter before him, and save where they conflict with the express provisions of this Code or these rules.
- (12) Order or direction when to be made.- The Enquiry Officer, after the case has been heard, shall make the order or direction on a future date to be fixed for this purpose.
- (13) Inspection of documents.- Any person, who is either a complainant or an opposite party or his representative, or any person permitted under sub-rule (3) shall be entitled to inspect any complaint, or any other document filed with the Enquiry Officer be, in a case to which he is a party .
