- (2) The State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette appoint as many persons as might be necessary to act as the nominee of the Registrar's nominees for settlement of dispute arising under the Act.

49. Procedure for hearing and decision of disputes.

- (1) The Registrar or his nominee shall record in the official language in the state, the evidence of the parties to the dispute and the witnesses who attend. Upon the evidence so recorded and upon consideration of any documentary evidence produced by the parties a decision shall be given by him in writing. Such decision shall be pronounced in the open court, either at once or as soon as may be practicable on some future day of which due notice shall be given to the parties.
- (2) Where neither party appears when the dispute called out for hearing, the registrar nor may his nominee make an order that it be dismissed for default.
- (3) Where the opponent appear and the disputant does not appear when the dispute is called out for hearing, the Registrar or his nominee may make an order that the dispute be dismissed, unless the opponent admits the claim, or a part thereof, in which case the Registrar or his nominee, as the case may be, may make an order against the opponent upon such admission, and where only part of the claim is admitted, may dismiss the dispute in so far as it relates to the remainder.
- (4) Where the disputant appears and the opponent does not appear when the dispute is called out for hearing, then if the Registrar or his nominee is satisfied from the record and proceedings that the summons was duly served the Registrar or his nominee may proceed with the dispute ex-parte. Where the summons is served by any officer of the Registrar or his nominee he shall make his report of service on oath.
- (5) The Registrar or his nominee may not ordinarily grant more than two adjournments to each party to the dispute at his request. The Registrar or his nominee may, however, at his discretion grant such further adjournments on payment of such costs to the other side and such fees to the Registrar or his nominee as the Registrar or his nominee as the case may be, may direct.
- (6) Any party to a dispute may apply for and obtain a certified copy of any order, judgment or award made by the Registrar or his nominee on payment of copying fees, at the rate prescribed in Appendix-

50. Summons, notices, and fixing of dates, place, etc, in connection with the disputes.

- (1) The Registrar, or his nominee, as the case may be, may issue summons or notices at least fifteen days before the date fixed for the hearing of the dispute requiring:
 - a) the attendance of the parties to the dispute and of witness, if any; and
 - b) the production of all books and documents relating to the matter in dispute,

- (2) Summons or notice issued by the Registrar or his nominee may be served through an authorized official of the Directorate of Institutional Finance & State Lottery or by registered post.
- (3) The Officer serving a summons or notice shall, in all cases in which summons or notice has been served; endorse or annex or cause to be endorsed on or annexed to. the original summons or notice; a return stating the time when, and the manner in which, the summons or, as the case may be. notice was served, and the name and address of the person (if any) identifying the person served and witnessing the delivery of tender of the summons or the notice.
- (4) The official issuing the summons or notice may examine the serving Officer on oath or cause him to be so examined by the authorized official of the Directorate of Institutional Finance & State Lottery or other officers through whom it is served and may make such further inquiry in the matter as he thinks fit and shall either declare that the summons or, as the case may be, notice has been duly served or order it to be served in such manner as he thinks fit.
- (5) The mode of serving summons and notices as laid down in sub-rule (1) to (4) shall mutatis mutandis apply to the service of summons or notice issued by the Registrar or the person authorized by him, when acting under section 46, of the Act.

51. Investigation of claims objections against any attachment.

Where any claim or objection has been preferred against the attachment of any property under section 68 of the Act on the ground that such property is not liable to such attachment, the Registrar, or as the case may be, his nominee shall investigate into the claim or objection and dispose it of on merits:

Provided that, no such investigation shall be made when the Registrar or his nominee considers that the claim or objection is frivolous.

52. Procedure for the custody of property attached under section 68.

- (1) here the property to be attached is moveable property, other than agricultural produce in the possession of the debtor, the attachment shall be made by actual seizure and the attaching officer shall keep the property in his own custody or in the custody of one of his subordinates, or of a Receiver, if one is appointed under sub-rule (2) and shall be responsible for the due custody thereof.

Provided that, when the property seized is subject to speedy and natural decay, or when the expenses of keeping it in custody is likely to exceed its value, the attaching officer may sell it at once,
