PART – II

PROCEDURE OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

12. The Executive Secretary or such other Officer as the Chief Executive Member may appoint shall be the Secretary to the Executive Committee who shall record all proceedings/ minutes of the said Committee.
13. All cases referred to in the second schedule shall, after consideration by the concerned Executive Member be sent to the Executive Secretary for obtaining orders of the Chief Executive Member for bringing it up for consideration at the meeting of the Executive Members or for circulation of the case under Rule 13 herein.
14. The Chief Executive Member may direct that any case referred to in the Second Schedule or otherwise may instead of being brought up for discussion at the Executive Committee be circulated to the Executive Members for their opinion. The Chief Executive Member may refer such matter for discussion at the meeting of the Executive Members if he considers necessary.
15. In cases which are circulated for opinion under Rule 14, every Executive Member shall communicate his opinion by a date specified in the memorandum of circulation. In case any Executive Member fails to communicate his opinion within the date so specified, the Executive Secretary shall bring the matter to the notice of the Chief Executive Member for further directions. The Chief Executive Member may return the case to the Executive Secretary with orders. The Executive Secretary will then pass it

- on to the Head of Department concerned for taking steps for the implementation of the decision or for issuance of the orders as may be directed by the Chief Executive Member accordingly.
16. When it has been decided to bring a case before the Executive Committee, the Department to which the case belongs shall unless the Chief Executive Member otherwise directs, prepare a memorandum indicating with sufficient precision on the salient facts of the case and the points for decision. The Memorandum having any financial implication shall be accompanied by Financial Memorandum obtained from Finance department. Such memorandum and such other papers as are necessary to enable the case to be disposed of shall be circulated to the Executive Members.
 17. In case which concerns more Executive Members than one, the Executive Members shall attempt by previous discussion to arrive at an agreement. If an agreement is reached, the memorandum shall contain the Joint recommendations of the Executive Members and if no agreement is reached, the memorandum shall state the points of difference and the recommendations of each of the Executive Member concerned and the same shall be submitted to the Chief Executive Member for his decision.
 - (1) The Executive Committee shall meet at such place and time as the Chief Executive Member may direct.
 - (2) After an agenda paper showing the cases to be discussed at the Executive Committee has been approved by the Chief Executive Member, copies thereof, together with copies of such Memorandum as have not been circulated under Rule 15 shall be sent by the Executive Secretary to the Chief Executive Member and other Executive Members so as to reach them within two clear days before the date of such meeting. The said period of 2 (two) days may be waived on reasonable ground.
 - (3) Except with the permission of the Chief Executive Member, no case shall be placed on the agenda of a meeting of the Executive Members and unless papers relating thereto have been circulated as required by Rule 15 of these Rules.
 - (4) If any Executive Member is on tour or on leave, the Executive Secretary shall bring the matter to the notice of the Chief Executive Member before the Executive Committee for appropriate instructions. The Chief Executive Member may direct for a report from the Head of the department for consideration of the Executive Committee. The Head of Department so directed shall act for and on behalf of the Executive Member who has been on tour or on leave and in active consultation with such Executive Member as far as practicable.
 - (5) The Chief Executive Member may direct the Executive Secretary to obtain the opinion of Judicial Department as regards to the proposal before the Executive Committee.

- (6) The Chief Executive Member or in his absence any other Executive Member authorized by him shall preside over the Executive Committee.
 - (7) The Executive Secretary shall attend the Executive Committee and shall prepare a record of the decisions. He shall, after approval of the Chief Executive Member prepare the record of decisions of the Executive Committee for communication to other Executive Members of the Executive Committee.
19. When a case has been decided by the Executive Committee after discussion at a meeting, the Executive Member concerned shall take action to give effect to the decision. If however, any deviation is proposed to be made from that decision, the case shall be submitted to the Chief Executive Member by the Executive Member concerned and further action will be taken according to the direction, if any, of the Chief Executive Member.

PART – III

DEPARTMENTAL DISPOSAL OF BUSINESS

20. Except as otherwise provided by any other Rule in force or provisions under sections 23, 25 & 26 of these Rules, case shall ordinarily be disposed of by or under the authority of the Executive Member-in-charge of the Department who shall give such directions as he thinks fit for the disposal of cases in his Department. Copies of important instruction shall be brought to the notice of the Chief Executive Member.
21. Whenever a matter concerns two Departments, the fact shall be specifically brought to the notice of the Executive Members concerned. Thereupon, the Executive Members of the Departments concerned shall hold discussion and try to arrive at an understanding. The Executive Members may, however, direct that the discussion may be held by the Heads of the Departments concerned. Such decision shall be recorded and placed before the Executive Members concerned. In case of any difference of opinion, the matter shall be put up before the Chief Executive Member for appropriate order.
 - (1) The Chief Executive Member may call for records of any case relating to any Department.
 - (2) The Chief Executive Member may, in consultation with the Executive Member-in-charge of the department, pass such orders in any case as he considers necessary or may direct that the matter shall be placed before the Executive Committee.
 - (3) The Chief Executive Member may pass orders in a case relating to any Department when the case is referred to him by the Executive Member-in-charge of the Department.

- (4) The Chief Executive Member, in the absence of the Executive Member-in-charge of the Department may, in a matter of urgent public importance relating to any Department pass such orders as he considers necessary or expedient.
